Form 990 - Organization's Mission

LBHS is a nonprofit, grassroots organization created to minimize the disparities in access to mental health services among the underserved Latino population concentrated in Salt Lake County and the rest Utah. As an organization run by peers, LBHS exists to enhance the mental health awareness and well-being of people with mental illness, their care-givers and loved ones through support, education, empowerment, facilitation of resources and services with competent responsiveness to cultural, socio-economic and linguistic characteristics. The work of LBHS embodies a theory of change rooted in capacity building: teach a woman to fish one at a time. The boards of directors as well as all resident partners working for LBHS are individuals who have personally been affected by both mental illness, minority status and immigration. People come to our programs to seek support for themselves or their families. Individuals and families raise their awareness. They learn. They are supported. They move into recovery and a greater state of well-being. With new knowledge and changed attitudes, they are often inspired to give back to the community that helped them. We hope to build the capacity of each individual that chooses to get more involved. We provide them with training, new skills, and opportunities to teach or to engage in outreach. In this way, our programs are sustainable and build capacity into families and communities. Through this process, we seek to increase knowledge about mental illness in the community, reduce stigma, and empower people to create change.

LBHS, during this period (July 1, 2020 - June 30, 2021), continue experiencing significant challenges due to COVID-19 and the increased needs and demands from the community. With some effort and adaptations, we not only sustain services at an equal or similar level to years before, but we also experience significant growth, which resulted in adding staff, increasing hours, and developing collaborative partnerships with local agencies outside of Salt Lake City that allowed us to expand our reach to other counties in the state. During this period, the organization completed planning and executed the 2021 Utah Peer Conference virtually in June, with over 270 participants. Furthermore, LBHS continued strengthening its telehealth model, upgraded its HIPPA compliant client management portal, and served individuals virtually across the state. During the period, LBHS provided most of its services via telehealth/ online due to COVID. Lastly, LBHS continues to explore collaborative partnerships across the state and plans on expanding its virtual and in-person reach across the state during 2022.
